

David M. Simon, P.E. BIOGRAPHY

Dave Simon has a 30-year career with the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT). He is currently serving as WisDOT's Director of the Bureau of Transit, Local Roads, Railroads & Harbors.

Dave earned a degree in Civil Engineering at the University of Wisconsin – Madison in 1988. After graduating from UW, Dave spent his first years as a Highway Design and Construction Engineer. He then worked in several different positions including Regional Traffic Engineer, State Roadside Facilities Engineer, Project Services Supervisor in charge of oversight of the design and construction of state and local highways, and Chief of Railroads & Harbors.

Dave is a registered Professional Engineer in the State of Wisconsin.