Employment

During fiscal year 2005, Amtrak employed 101 Wisconsin residents. Total wages of Amtrak employees living in Wisconsin were 5,138,324 during this period.

State-Assisted Services

The State of Wisconsin, in partnership with the State of Illinois, funds the operation of the Hiawatha Service between Milwaukee and Chicago.

Station Improvements

Construction has begun on a station replacement project for Sturtevant and a groundbreaking ceremony was held on September 24, 2005. Completion is expected in April 2006.

A major station renovation project in downtown Milwaukee also is expected to begin in FY06.

The state opened a new station at Mitchell International Airport in Milwaukee on January 18, 2005.

Selected Highlights

The Hiawathas had a double-digit increase in ridership in FY05 (+14.1%). This corridor has the best on-time performance in the Amtrak system, 91.6% in FY05, and is the 8th-busiest corridor in the country.
